CAMINO DE SANTIAGO

a pilgrimage guided by the stars

COMPOSTELAN HOLY YEAR

a journey of transformation with

Foster Perry

Kristos Tsompanelis

Marcela Pazos

Some journeys take you through a landscape. And others take you through yourself.

For centuries, the Camino de Santiago has been traveled not only as a route, but as a path of alignment — guided by something that goes beyond what the mind can fully comprehend.

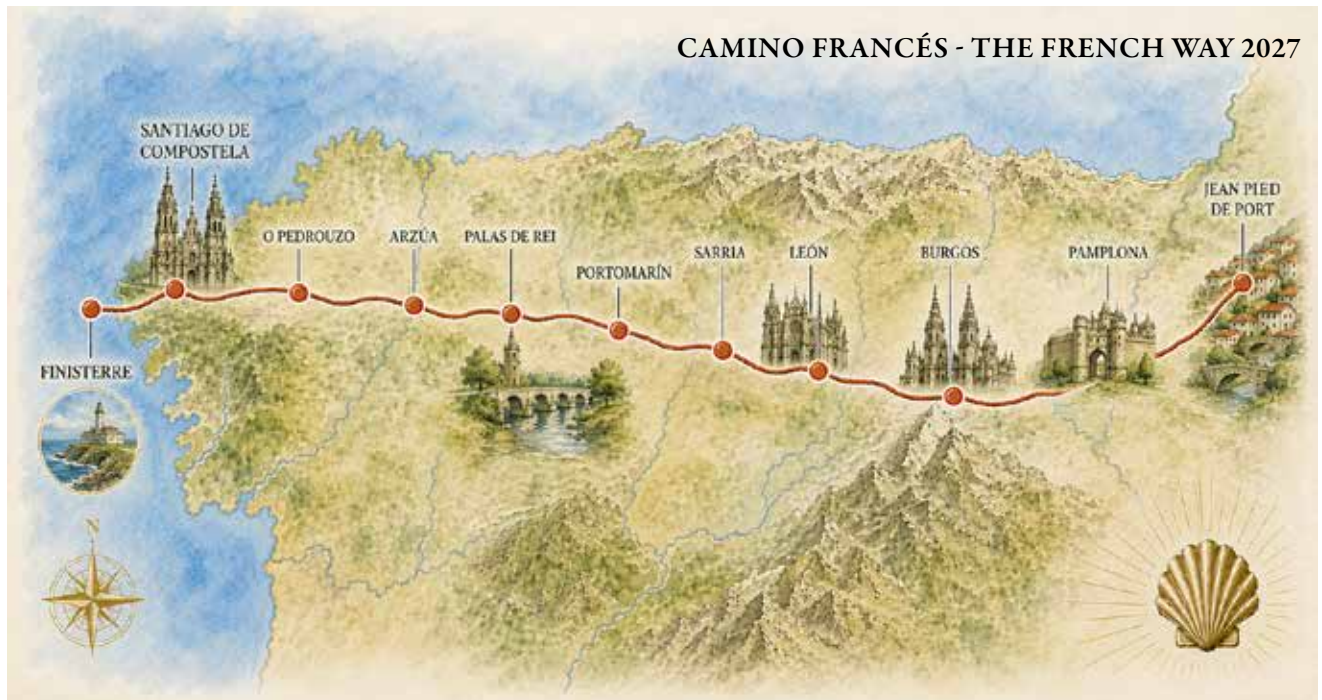

We have designed an experience to walk this path in a different way.

With Foster Perry and Kristos Tsompanelis guiding the inner journey, this pilgrimage opens a space where the Camino becomes more than a physical journey. Their work in consciousness, healing, and inner transformation invites each participant to experience the Camino as a living field of perception, where insights, release, and profound inner shifts may naturally emerge.

Throughout the journey, there will be moments of healing and channeling that are not scheduled in advance. These will arise organically, in resonance with the group and with the field of the Camino itself, allowing each experience to unfold authentically, at the right moment and in alignment with the group's process.

The itinerary has been carefully designed and will be guided throughout by Marcela Pazos, who is deeply connected to Galicia, the land of her ancestors. Through her knowledge of the territory, its history, and its subtle dimensions, she supports the integration of the experience, weaving together the physical journey with its symbolic, ancestral, and energetic layers.

Together, they create an intentional and uncommon space to travel, feel, and integrate the Camino, allowing what is experienced along the way to continue resonating within you long after reaching the destination.

START MAY 16, 2027

14 DAYS/13 NIGHTS

Led by: Foster Perry y Kristos Tsompanelis

Organized by: Marcela Pazos

Workshop with Foster and Kristos Perry combined with visits to sacred sites

THE ESSENCE OF THIS JOURNEY

This is not a journey to complete a route, but to enter into a process.

You will walk among forests, villages, and ancient paths, but you will also pass through memories, questions, and inner thresholds. There will be moments of silence; others will bring revelations. And some may awaken something that does not yet have a name.

It is said that the Camino offers each person what they are prepared to receive. This experience has been conceived to open to that possibility: to walk with presence, depth, and intention, and to allow the Camino to reveal what it has for you.

WHO IS THIS JOURNEY FOR?

This experience is designed for those who:

- > Feel a genuine calling toward the Camino de Santiago
- > Are open to inner exploration and transformation
- > Value profound and meaningful travel experiences
- > Are willing to engage with both the outer path and the inner journey

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS

The Camino de Santiago is an active experience that includes walking for several consecutive days. It is not necessary to complete every stage in full, but participants must have the mobility and physical condition needed to enjoy part of the routes on foot.

For this reason, the journey may not be suitable for people with serious or untreated physical injuries, or with significant mobility limitations.

Each participant will be able to experience the Camino according to their abilities and at their own pace, since a support bus will always be available.

INCLUDES

- > 13 nights of accommodation
- > 4★ hotels in cities
- > Rural accommodations on the Camino
- > Daily breakfast
- > Luggage transfer
- > Dossier and map of the Camino
- > Exclusive bus, including during the walk, which will provide support for those who decide to walk only half of each stage (from day 7 to 11 of the itinerary)
- > Pilgrim credential
- > General coordination

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE ROUTE

- > You don't have to be "ready," you just have to be willing to begin.
- > This trip covers the full 790 km of the Camino Francés, first crossing the Pyrenees to begin from Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port, the gateway where the Camino originates in France.
- > In order to complete the entire route without having to walk it in full, the itinerary is designed in two stages:
 - The first 676 km are covered by bus, over 6 days.
 - The last 114 km are walked over 5 stages, averaging 25 km per day.
- > Why 114 km and not less? Because anyone who walks at least 100 km is considered a "pilgrim," and only then can you request, upon arrival, the Compostela, the certificate awarded by the Cathedral of Santiago to those who complete the Camino with a religious or spiritual motivation.
- > During those 5 days of walking, the bus serves as constant support: each day it waits at the midpoint of the stage, so if at any point you decide not to walk the full stretch, you can board at the midpoint and be taken to the end of the stage, or simply choose not to walk that day.
- > The bus will take you to the next hotel if on any day you decide to take a break from walking.
- > Just trust in what the Camino has to show you.

A JOURNEY LED BY:

Foster Perry

He has traveled the world studying, teaching, and practicing the joy of self-healing for 40 years. After graduating from Georgetown University, he moved to New York City to study art, design and psychology. It was there that his life reached a turning point, when lightning struck him, leaving him unconscious. After this event, he was forced to leave his life, his family, his friends, and embark on a lifestyle in which he studied spiritual traditions and practices around the world. Foster learned rituals, ceremonies, and healing with shamans in the southwestern United States and South America. He now synthesizes his extensive knowledge of Native American, South American, Asian, and European healing traditions with spiritual practices in what has come to be known as Hummingbird Medicine. Hummingbird Medicine helps participants heal their wounds and release their fears, freeing them to experience again their love, their life, and their divine joy. Foster works as a ceremonial leader, workshop facilitator, writer, and artist, and his The Golden Hummingbird® Healing technique has earned him respect around the world.

Kristos Tsompanelis

He was born in Germany in 1968. From an early age, he was aware of his psychic abilities; he has the ability to communicate with the deceased, and even move objects. He has long been involved in the foundations of medical science, naturopathy, and alternative medicine. In addition, he is a musician, has begun composing, and has produced commercial music. He has worked in spiritual development for 20 years, giving seminars, working with homeopathy, artists, and professionals as a medical clairvoyant. Kristos works in the field of spiritual music, as well as a holistic therapist around the world.
